Effective Collaboration Wins Grand Effie and Two Golds at Effie New Zealand Gala

'Catch a Million - How Tui got people watching the crowds as well as the cricket' was a standout campaign that had consumers talking about the Tui brand all summer long in New Zealand. The case was rewarded with the Grand Effie in front of 500 communications industry professionals and their clients at last night's CAANZ New Zealand Effie Awards, held in association with TVNZ & ANZA.

Saatchi & Saatchi, ApolloNation, SparkPHD, and client DB Breweries collaborated on the Tui case which, in addition to winning the coveted Grand Effie, won $100,000 of TVNZ air time. Their Tui Catch a Million case also won Gold in the Most Effective PR/Experiential and Fast Moving Consumer Goods (FMCG) categories.

"The case stood out for its simplicity, its infectiousness and clear ability to deliver great results," said international judge Paul Feldwick.

Other top winning teams included: DDB and Sky Television for their case "Bring Down the King"; Barnes, Catmur & friends and Hell Pizza for "Rabbit Pizza Billboard"; and FCB New Zealand and Health Promotion Agency (HPA) for "Say Yeah, Nah".

CAANZ CEO Paul Head said "Effie is the most coveted award of its kind in New Zealand due to its rigorous judging and international credibility. To win an award of any color last night is a significant achievement that proves the value that communication agencies add to their client's business. Congratulations to all the finalists and winners.”

The 2014 Effie New Zealand Awards are organized by CAANZ in association with TVNZ and ANZA and sponsors: NZME., Nielsen and The Radio Bureau with support from FUZED Printers.
